Rafe Martin--Birdwing

In Birdwing, Rafe Martin combines fairy tale and legend in a way that is unique. The style of writing works in and out of retelling fairy-tale and into the inner workings and depth of Ardwin and the others. At times, Ardwin's story is fresh and present, while at other times, it feels as if the events are being viewed from above (perhaps

The Wood Between the Worlds: Birdwing by Rafe Martin
Birdwing By Rafe Martin Birdwing by Rafe Martin . Based on the Six Swans fairytale, Birdwing tells the story of the younger brother that was left with a swan wing instead of an arm. It is mostly a story about growing up and accepting differences. But it is also an adventure story. Ardwin, still a child when the spell that transformed him and his brothers into swans was broken, grows up ...
