PREVIEW " I don ' t mean to be harsh Kamille, but you mean to tell me that after four years of being in a relationship with you — and a year of being engaged to you — that he was n ' t sure that ' s what he wanted. I mean, y ' all were living together already. It ' s not like he was in for a big surprise. But he backed out, which says to me that he had no clue as to what he wanted from your relationship. And when a man doesn ' t know what he wants, he ' s likely to do all types of stupid crap — like lose control over his finances and lose control over his sperm. This makes him non-marriage material in my book. I don ' t care how fine he is, how much money he makes, or how nice he is. " "Well Omar didn ' t have any children. And his credit was just a little banged up. It ' s nothing that couldn ' t have been fixed. People bounce back from indecisiveness — especially at his age. Not to beat a dead horse, but if he was in his twenties with ' banded-up credit, ' as you put it, I could maybe see it Kamille. But Omar was 34 — long past when he should have his shit together. And his pride should have made him not allow you to be the sole signor on that mortgage. Good thing you didn ' t need him to pay the bills. You ' d be stuck with a big ole mortgage all by yourself. Now you ' re just stuck by yourself. But that won ' t last. One thing he did get right is that you ' re an awesome catch! " Kamille didn't realize how prophetic her business partner's words would be when she planned her getaway to South Beach, Miami. It's exactly the break she'd needed after her engagement was called off a year ago. # # # Landon ' s eyes followed every delectable award of her picture-perfect backside as she walked in front of him. Tonight was turning out to be a helluva lot better than his day. Kamille could feel his eyes on her. They were like an ass-laser, trained to hone in on exactly one spot — her backside. She felt heated, from the swell of her butt to the intimate crease between her thighs. She hadn't decided whether she was flattered or pissed off about where his impossibly gorgeous eyes were focused. " As this is our second meeting, I suppose the first thing we should do is get introductions out of the way. I ' m Landon; Landon Shaw, " he said, extending a large hand across the table for her to shake. Nice to meet you, Mr. Shaw. I ' m Kamille Howard, " she said, taking his hand, which swallowed hers. She liked the feeling. It made her feel feminine and protected. It ' s all part of the game extremely handsome men like him played with women, she reminded herself; you'd do well not to forget it. # # # " I ' m not the kind of person who dwells on what could have been. I focus on what is. And right now before me is a beautiful woman ... one I ' m going to kiss. " he forewarned, his strong, warm hand cupping her right jawline. "Resist me if you must," he said, those penetrating grey eyes disturbingly close to hers, " but I could never live with myself if I didn ' t at least try. " Before she could even begin to formulate how to control her ragged breathing, or still the blood coursing throughout her body, his exceedingly soft lips commandeered hers. It truly was like a proverbial match to a flame. It had been over a year since she had been kissed. And it felt so good. And he was so good at it. Kamille wrapped her arms around his waist, feeling the hardness of his cord-like strength as he pulled her to him, deepening the kiss. The force of what was building within her was crippling ... crippling her ability to think, to form a cohesive thought, to resist ... even a little. Shards of desire, passion, longing, loving and sheer lust made her forget all of her resolve about ' men like him ', saving her intimate self for marriage, and her fears of getting hurt. The only thing she felt in his arms was raw, naked need.

PROLOGUE "You know what your problem is?" Gatlin bit out. "You're too damn na ÷ ve. Not everything in life is all butterflies and sunshine Kylie." "And do you know what your problem is?" Kylie shot back. "You're too damn jaded. You wouldn't know happiness if it bit you in the ass, " she continued. "You're content being miserable — and I'm going to leave you to that because it has no place in my world of butterflies and sunshine, " she ended, storming past Gatlin. His arm snaked out and grabbed her. "Let go ... of ... me," Kylie bit out as she fought against her rising tide of passion. Gatlin's heat-seeking tongue melted her last bit of resistance. Kylie dug her hands into his thick, dark hair. Gatlin slowed his assault on her mouth, moving to the golden column of her neck. "No, no, no ... stop. Stop Gatlin," her words slowly penetrated his aroused state. "This doesn't solve anything," she said, tears rolling down her cheeks. It's never been our problem ... and it won't be our salvation." Shaking off his desire to focus as best as he could, Gatlin responded, "It's a damn good place to start," and reached for her again. "Gatlin stop! " Kylie yelled. "Don ' t you see? This is just another way for you to not deal with your real feelings. ... I'm looking for real, lasting, soul-connecting love; not some casual roll in the hay!" "You know you mean more to me than just a roll in the hay!" Gatlin said. "I really care about you Kylie." "I love you Gatlin. And I know it's not something a modern woman is supposed to say so early in a relationship. But there it is. And I don't expect you to do anything or say anything. I just wanted you to know where I'm coming from." "In my world, love is not complicated. Difficult at times? Yes. But hard? No. You're absolutely right, ÷ I believe in love and I won't let anybody make me feel bad about that or take that away from me." "The thing is, I know you love me too. But you just won't let yourself trust that what we have is real. And I refuse to spend my life trying to prove it to you." # # # "Stop hitting my mom!" Gatlin yelled, jumping in front of his mother to prevent his father from landing another blow. "This is between your mother and me boy!" his father said in his drunken slur. "Go to your room. I'm ok honey." "I'm not leaving you," Gatlin cried, his seven-year-old voice cracking with fear as he tried to drag his mom from the room. As his father prepared to land another blow, Gatlin kicked him in the groin. He doubled over in pain, shouting, "You miserable little piece of shit! I'll kill you for this!" Gatlin's mother ran to his side. "Honey are you alright?" she said, wiping blood from the side of her lip with one hand while she consoled his father with the other. # # # Gatlin had mentally catalogued hundreds of these memories from his childhood. But this particular one stuck with him vividly. He realized why when Kylie said, "I believe in love and I won't let anybody take that away from me." When his mother had gone to his father to comfort him, instead of coming to him, a frightened 7-year-old, he realized the power of love. His mother had loved his father beyond all rhyme and reason — even beyond her child. He didn't realize it, but that had been the moment he'd stopped believing in love. Love hurt. It was cruel. It wasn't kind. It was loyal to the wrong people. # # # Can Kylie trust that what's between them will blossom into everlasting love, or will Gatlin's painful past always be a barrier to their happily ever after? # # # african american romance, contemporary romance, interracial romance, bwmm romance, multicultural romance, drama romance, short romance, steamy romance, suspense romance

" If after five years you don ' t think you owe me at least that amount of respect, then you ' re not the man I thought you were Gibraltar. How could you just disappear for eight days with no explanation. " " Look Harper, I told you ... it was work. I got called out of town at the last minute. I was handpicked to do that security job. Do you know what it means to be selected to provide personal security for a client like that? I worked 16 hour days; eight days straight. I was tired as hell when I fell into bed at night, and then I had to get up and do it all over again the next day. Look, I ' m sorry ... " " Let me ask you this ... you said your client didn ' t want you using personal cell phones on the job. But the last time I checked, there were 24 hours in a day. You worked 16. By my calculations, that left you eight hours to pee, bathe, eat, fart, burp your teeth ... and anything else you wanted to do. Did you do all of that? " " Don ' t look at me like I have two heads. Answer me damnit! " Harper screamed. " And your point is? " Gibraltar said, folding his arms across his massive chest. " My point is, " Harper hissed, " you had time to send a two-second text or leave a ten-second voice message. Your phone is like an appendage. You always have it with you, so I know that was n ' t the problem. I didn ' t warrant a few seconds of your time? Really! That ' s what hurts the most. " Harper continued, a sob settling somewhere in the middle of her chest. " You know what I realized as I was worrying myself sick over you those eight days? I realized that you never got out of your way for me Gibraltar. Never. It always — always — has to be convenient for you to have any type of interaction with me. " Harper said on a whisper. " I thought, " she said, futilely trying to keep her cheeks dry of tears, " give him time. He ' ll see how happy we could be together. But then there was always that little voice inside that said, " He only calls when it ' s convenient Harper. Like when he ' s had enough sleep, or when he gets the next day off, or when he ' s done at the gym, or when he doesn ' t have to do overtime. ' " " I tried so hard not to be one of those pushy women who ' s always pressuring her man to do something. I wanted you to be with me because I wanted to; not because I put pressure on you. I thought that if you could see that I wasn ' t one of ' those ' kinds of women, you ' d respect me more; that you ' d see what life could be like for us together. But I loved you. I still love you. So I made myself believe that it didn ' t matter. That you just needed time. I see clearly now that there was never going to come a time because you know what? Life has a funny way of being ridiculously inconvenient. But when you care for someone ... " Harper let her voice trail off. Running the back of her left hand over her cheek to stop another tear midstream, she continued, " But I can ' t pretend any more that I'm some modern woman who has all her shit together and is okay with this type of casual relationship. " " I ' m not. I ' m a real woman with real feelings. And the way you treat me hurts ... it hurts like hell, " Harper said. " And it ' s been eating away at my soul for a long time. " Harper took her time to dry every tear. Then she looked into the dark-brown eyes of the man she ' d loved five years and said what she knew she ' d need to say for a long time. " I really should probably thank you because who knows how long I would have let whatever it is we call this supposed relationship go on had this not happened. " * Harper look ... " Gibraltar started, feeling the need to say something. " Gibraltar you don ' t need to say anything. Your actions have said it all — for five years now. " Harper opened the front door of her apartment. Gibraltar walked out. She closed the door silently behind him and clicked the lock -- on a past that should have ended long ago ... and a future that was never meant to be. # # # interracial romance, bwmm romance, african american romance, contemporary Christian romance, multiracial romance, short story romance, short romance, christian romance, religious romance

EXCERPT "It's just sex." Karen said."Will you stop trying to make a mountain out of a mole hill!" "I would if you didn't have that homosgenic smile glued to your mug," her best friend Angelika shot back. "I've never known you to do 'just sex.' Be careful Kare," Angelika said, turning serious as she used Karen's nickname. "You don't do 'to-go' sex." Your heart always gets involved and that's what scares me about this. I don't want to see you hurt again." After her last relationship ended in heartbreak, Karen had taken a year's sabbatical from dating and reassessed her priorities. Her professional life was budding, but she was lonely. So she decided to focus on what she could control — her business — and not wait for a committed relationship to blossom before she would have some fun. Meeting Karen seemed to solidify that she'd made the right decision. They hit it off immediately and she headed straight down the 'bad girl' path, forging a physical connection before thought was given to any type of emotional bond. Could her bad girl behavior lead to a lasting relationship? " "Te quiero mucho," Kamar said in his native Spanish. "I have since the first time I laid eyes on you." "I want you too Kamar," was all Karen could muster in response. Kamar lowered his head and took Karen's lips firmly in his. He didn't want to scare her, but God he'd waited so long to claim those soft, pillowy clouds that he deepened the kiss much quicker than he wanted to. To his surprise, Karen responded with equal pent-up ardor. Wrapping her hands around his neck, she pressed closer into his long, lean frame, reveling in the corded strength of his body. Barely realizing what he was doing, Kamar scooped Karen up effortlessly in his arms and walked down the long hallway to his bedroom. Because he travelled so much and had a hard time sleeping with any kind of light, the room was dark — so dark that it was hard to see anything at all. Eyes closed, Karen didn't notice because her lips were still fully exploring Kamar's. Only when he lowered her to the bed did she realize that they'd left the living room and were in his bedroom. In one effortless move, Kamar hit a switch on the bedside table and flooded the room with soft lamp light. He froze when he looked at Karen. She was stunningly beautiful — her skin glowed luminously in the dimmed lighting. Not sure how to react to his gaze, Karen lay still beneath him, her eyes pleading for an explanation. "A dios mio, estan muy hermosa," he whispered. Although her Spanish was limited, she understood enough to know that he was telling her how beautiful she was. With this, she immediately relaxed. "Thank you," she whispered and reached up to brazenly pull his lips back to hers. She was overwhelmed by her need for him and while she could never be so bold as to express it in words, she'd let her body tell him everything he needed to know. "" Karen looked at herself squarely in the bathroom mirror the next morning. "What have I done?" she chastised herself. "To go" sex, as her friend Angelika had put it, definitely wasn't her style. But two mojitos and one sangria later and she'd given in to the desire Kamar had awakened in her. Could the chemistry they shared in bed translate into a successful relationship out of bed? Or was she so "Trapped by Desire" that she was setting herself up for heartbreak all over again? # # # Relevant Search Terms: african american romance, contemporary romance, interracial romance, multiracial romance, bwmm romance, multicultural romance, short romance, steamy romance
