He had bought us a house in Buckinghamshire, a few miles from where Carrick and Andi live. I'd gotten quite close to Andi, which is strange considering how I first met her, but now, she and Petra are my closest friends. Jett had helped Leandro pick the house out. But I was worried about Kit and where he would live.

REVIVED is a STANDALONE, CONTEMPORARY ROMANCE NOVEL from the New York Times, Wall Street Journal and USA Today Bestselling author of REVVED. India Harris didn't have the best start in life. Abandoned as a baby, she and her twin brother, Kit, spent their lives in foster care, only having each other to rely on. Then, at a young age, a relationship with the wrong man left India pregnant. Wanting to give her son the life she never had, she put herself through school and graduated with honors. Now, at the age of thirty, she's a highly respected therapist. At the top of his game as a Formula One driver, Leandro Silva had everything-until an accident on the track left him staring death in the face. After enduring twelve months of physical therapy, Leandro is now physically able to race, but his mind is keeping him from the track. Frustrated and angry, Leandro's days and nights are filled with limitless alcohol and faceless women. Entering the last year of his contract, he knows he has to race again, or he'll lose everything he spent his life working for. Forced into therapy to get his life back, Leandro finds himself in the office of Dr. India Harris. Falling for his uptight therapist is not part of Leandro's plan. Having unethical feelings for her patient, the angry Brazilian race car driver, is not part of India's plan. But what if the wrong person is the only person who is right? Everyone else had dreams of making it big in Formula 1. Me? This is my F1 nightmare. When most boyfriends break up with you, they disappear. They crawl back under the rock they came from. Not Cole Ballentine, the broken bad boy who dropped panties with one sexy smirk, a beacon to every girl desperate to land an angsty fixer upper. My first love, my best friend--he took my heart, stole my virginity, and obliterated my life when he left for London to become an F1 driver. Now, I have to see him on TV, online, and at the bloody newsstands. He's living his best life as a millionaire celebrity athlete with a parade of exotic women in tow. Maybe that's why I've never gotten over him. He won't go away. For six years, I've avoided him like the plague, only to be thrust into his world again as his new racing engineer. He's not the same boy I fell in love with. No, now he's all man. I'm sure as hell not the same quiet, nerdy girl he left behind. Someone's sabotage is shattering the safety of the racetrack. Lives are on the line. Secrets are being kept. And people are desperate to bury the truth. When it rains in F1, it pours, and I'm about to get very, very wet. He thinks he's untouchable-until a betrayal brings him spiraling down. Now, everyone pities him, and if there's one thing Vaughn hates, it's pity. After a few months of working his way through every available actress, pop star, model, and waitress in California, Vaughn needs to get his life back on track and focus on what he does best-making hit movies. Charlotte Michaels is in love. Just not with one person. Louis Vuitton... Christian Dior... Valentino... Gucci... And the list goes on. Sadly, Charly's limited bank account doesn't allow her those luxuries, and the closest she gets are lucky finds in charity shops and working closely with some of those names in her job as a wardrobe assistant. Now, Charly has landed the mother of all jobs-working on the new Vaughn West movie. Excited doesn't even cut it. Only things don't go as planned, and it turns out that Vaughn is actually a jerk. A hot jerk, but a jerk nonetheless. So, why do their clothes keep falling off whenever they're around each other? And why can't Charly keep her mind in the closet and off Vaughn? Getting mixed up with a smart-mouthed, fashion-obsessed wardrobe assistant is the last thing Vaughn needs. Getting mixed up with an arrogant, self-centered, obnoxious, jumped-up actor who has a lack of respect for fashion is the last thing Charly needs. "I am doomed to remember a boy with a wrecked voice—not because of his voice, or because he was the smallest person I ever knew, or even because he was the instrument of my mother's death, but because he was the reason I believe in God; I am a Christian because of Owen Meany." In the summer of 1953, two eleven-year-old boys—best friends—are playing in a Little League baseball game in Gravesend, New Hampshire. One of the boys hits a foul ball that kills the other boy's mother. The boy who hits the ball doesn't believe in accidents; Owen Meany believes he is God's instrument. What happens to Owen, after that 1953 foul ball, is extraordinary and terrifying.
